Student Council Gives Program P-T.A. Meeting

By Joe Cram, Carl Brisbin

Last Thursday, January 12, the first P-T.A. meeting was held in the auditorium. The program was directed by the student council. Shirley Cram and Mickey Scott led the flag salute. The "Star Spangled Banner" was led by Vevah Gail Bodkins and accompanied by Gerry Alleman. Miss Dean's class did a square dance.

Safety captain, Susan Zwart and Rosetta Smith explained the badges which the safety captains wore. Mr. Rowe's room did some safety skits. After that, Zedith Hathcock did a South American dance.

There was a guitar solo by John Vierra of Mrs. Lissner's room and Vevah Gail Bodkins, Myra Simpson, Mary Lou Hoxsie, Nolan Blackman and Paul Caperone sang, "Now is the hour." This was followed by another guitar solo by Margaret Gravely of Mr. Keefe's room.

For the last number, Rosalie Miller and Barbara Palmer sang "Winter wonderland." Doris Simmons accompanied them.

After that, room count was taken. The winners were as follows: Mrs. Higgins' class, 26%; Miss Dean, 46%; and Mrs. Arnold, 36%.

The next P-T.A. meeting will be held in February and will honor Founder's Day.

(Editor's Note — A feature film in technicolor, ,'Yosemite — end of the rainbow," concluded the program, after which doughnuts and coffee were served in the utility room. Mrs. Louis Wlaschin presided during the business meeting because Mrs. Dorothy Lukens, president, was suffering from a severe case of laryngitis.)

Said In Cypress

That the prize-winning brother and sister combo this week is that of Erling and Gloria McKinzie. Have you seen them on that new motor scooter together? Be careful, kids. We want you to be around a long time.

That we had an interesting conversation with a fairly new resident here, H. O. Rind, when he came into the office to place a want ad. Rind has an unusual occupation—he's a "crop duster." Been flying since he was 16. He sort of disputes that saying the "fly boys" had when they were cadets and just learning that he who flys highest flys longest."

That we're glad we didn't try something we had in mind to do one day this week. Since we threw the papers the last time, we discovered a new street in Cypress—a continuation of LaSalle to Lincoln. We tried it as far as th mud puddle, then decided to back up the whole distance rather than take a chance on getting stuck. The next day we saw a driver who was not so lucky in her decision. She called the tow truck from the Cypress garage to pull her out!

That we've already mentioned one Cypress woman's hobby in

HIGH SCHOOL YOUTH WRECKS CAR IN FOG

Driving to high school in Anaheim Wednesday morning, the '33 Ford belonging to Roland Singer was completely wrecked in an accident.

Fortunately, Roland escaped with no serious injuries. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Signer, 9651 Juanita street.

Funeral Saturday For T. J. Boyd In Long Beach

Friends of Ted J. Boyd, former Orange county nurseryman, were shocked to learn of his unexpected death this week.

Details had not been learned as the paper went to press, except that Hunter's mortuary at 5443 Long Beach Blvd. will be in charge of funeral services Saturday, January 21 at one o'clock p.m.

The body was removed to Long Beach from Earp, Calif., where Mr. and Mrs. Boyd had been camping.

CYPRESS MATRON ON TELEVISION SUNDAY EVENING

Fortune may smile on a Cypress resident Sunday on television. At least, it is expected that Mrs. Ross Mester, 9032 Denni road, will be given an opportunity to tempt the good "Dame" when Rita LeRoy will introduce her on "Best Dressed Woman" Sunday evening at 7:45 over Channel 7.

She will compete for first prize on the show.

In contacting the newspaper while attempting to reach Mrs. Mester, Miss LeRoy's assistant said they were particularly interested to have her enter the contest because of her description of how to dress well at a nominal cost.

Mrs. Mester is partial to knit dresses, which she makes herself. She will feature one of these, complete with proper accessories, on the show.

Nine Left Homeless As Fire Destroys Dwelling

Fire of undetermined origin completely destroyed the two-story dwelling on Graham street which housed Mr. and Mrs. Neal Spratt and their seven children. All of their possessions were burned, except the clothes on their backs and a television in the shop for repair.

The fire siren sounded at 4:25 Wednesday afternoon, and Cypress volunteer firemen were on the scene at 4:28. The blaze, which apparently started in an upstairs bedroom, had already eaten its way into the kitchen below, giving the fire a head-start.

Officials have not ascertained the exact cause of the conflagration. One supposition is that a breeze from the southwest blowing through an open bedroom window may have caused a mattress drying by a gas heater in another room to become ignited.

Emil F. Peterson, owner of the house, was about to deed the property to his daughter, a Mrs. Larson, and the house was scheduled to go into escrow. Mrs. Spratt was away from home at the time of the fire, looking for another place to live. Spratt was recently employed at the auction yard in Hawaiian Gardens, after a one-year's period of illness.

No one was injured as a result of the fire. The Spratt's had no insurance on their belongings. At press time information regarding insurance on the house was not available.

As this paper goes to press, Jerry Dolan has offered an $1,800 house at an extremely low price, hoping to arrange to have it moved, free, onto a lot some individual might arrange lenient terms for. Anyone having such a lot, call Anaheim 6404.

Cagers Whip League Leaders as Lillie Hits for 22 Markers

Williams shoe store of Anaheim took it on the chin for the second time in a row last week as the Cypress Merchant cagers copped a 48 to 41 victory over a team that had won nine straight contests.

After Williams led at the end of the first quarter 10-8, Cypress found its shooting eye and outscored its opponent in the second stanza, 15 to 7. At the end of the third quarter, the local team lead 40 to 26, then coasted to the final 48-41 margin.

Forward Lillie potted 22 points for Cypress, to lead the evening's scoring parade. Lawrence was next in line for the locals, hitting for 10 points, and he was closely followed by Hoyt with 8. Mene had four while Linker and Boyd garnered two apiece.

The standings up to Tuesday night are:

Ritz Cleaners	9	1
Bob Williams	9	2
Leavitt Ford	9	2
Cypress	6	3
Rotary	5	6
Cotlers	4	7
Tip Top Cleaners	3	9

Let's Go Gay With P-T.A. In 90's Revue

Cypress P-T.A. will turn back the clock this year and present a collossal musical revue in the manner of the "Gay 90's." Proceeds of the affair will be used to purchase playground equipment and for youth activities.

The successful minstrel show, which the group staged last year, will be recalled by many.

It is planned to have a two night showing again this year, and definite dates will be announced later.

Chairmen in charge of the show are Mrs. Jack Junker and Mrs. E. V. Gage. Local talent will provide the entertainment, and anyone who will volunteer to take part is asked to call Mrs. Junker at Anaheim 60574.

Costumes and properties pertaining to this period will be in demand for the production. The committee would be grateful for any donations or suggestions along this line.

SPANISH FOODS HIGHLIGHT MENU AT GET-TO-GETHER

Mrs. Evie Junker, 4811 Grace avenue, and Mrs. Delores MacConahay were co-hostesses Wednesday at a gathering of schol mates during high school days in the Junker home.

A meal was prepared for the guests which included several of the more popular Spanish oods. The group meets for a social period every month.

Present in addition to the two hostesses were Mmes. Shirley Huebert, Los Alamitos; Mable Misner, Hawaiian Gardens; Ruth Gillis, of Anaheim, and her sister; Frances Young, Lakewood; Frances Dirkson, Long Beach; Dorothy Gettle, Midway City and Juanita Dickey, Van Nuys.

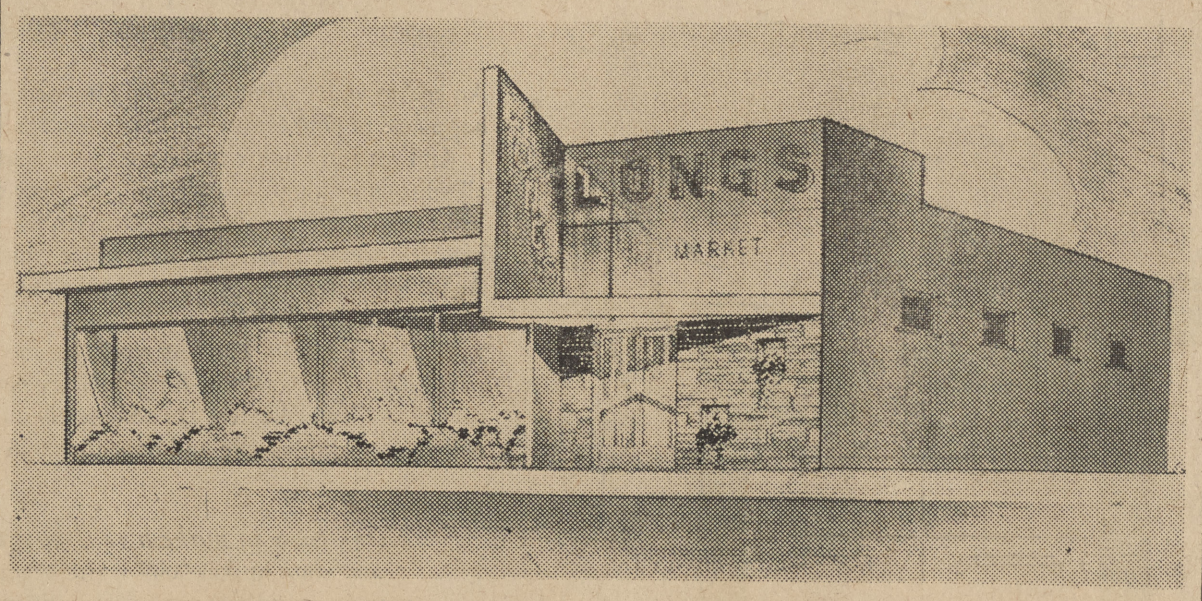
By a coincidence, the day also marked the birth date of Mrs. MacConahay, which was double cause for celebration.

BURNED OUT FAMILY NEEDS HELP

If you have clothing, furniture, or anything that might be used by a father and mother and seven children, you are asked to bring it to the annex of the Cypress Church of the Nazarene. (The annex is located directly in the back of the church at 9021 Walker street, Cypress.) Leave donations of money at the Cypress Hardware.

The Neal Spratt family consists of Mr. and Mrs. Spratt, who wear size 42 and 34 clothing respectively, and the following children: Alice, age 15, size 14; Bobbie, 8; Carolyn, 7; Billy, 6; Tommy, 4; Martha, 2; and baby Junior, six months old.

The Rev. W. D. Howard requests that anyone knowing of a house to rent call Anaheim 60457.



LOS ALAMITOS SUPERMARKET BEING BUILT—A modern style of architecture will be followed by C. L. Long and son, C. H. Long, in the construction of a supermarket at Los Alamitos. The building has already been started, and is expected to be completed in April.—P.T. Photo.

GREGG'S CELEBRATE ANNIVERSARY DATE OF STORE'S OPENING

Marking the occasion with a store-wide sale, Gregg's super market will celebrate its opening on January 21, a year ago, in its present location.

Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Gregg had formerly operated the Los Coyotes market on Lincoln avenue, and moved to their larger quarters at 5941 Lincoln avenue at that time.

In September they enlarged their store with the addition of another 20 feet by 40 feet space.

On Saturday evening, January 21, a drawing will be held at six o'clock, for three free prizes.

TO SELL GOODIES NEXT SATURDAY ON STREET CORNER

A sale of home-cooked delicacies will be held Saturday at the corner of Lincoln and Walker by members of the Busy Bees club.

To be featured especially will be baked beans and potato salad, items which proved to be very popular at the last sale the group sponsored.

Proceeds will be added to the club's treasury.

Other items will be offered for sale, and the members invite the public's patronage.

MARCH OF DIMES

It is to be hoped that this year's March of Dimes will really become a March of Dollars, for there never was a greater need for funds to care for the polio victims and to aid research in the prevention of infantile paralysis.

The fact that all money collected is used without regard to the race, creed or color of those requiring help is one of the many reasons why all should give generously.

FAITH TABERNACLE MARKS FIRST YEAR WITH BIG MEETING

A dynamic youth speaker, a brass quartette from Bellflower, and a 75-voice choir composed of young people in this area will be featured at the first of a series of events marking the anniversary of the Faith Tabernacle here.

The Rev. C. G. Eigenhuis, pastor, has announced January 23, the church has reserved the auditorium of the Cypress elementary school for its initial meeting.

On the actual anniversary date, January 29, an all-day youth rally will take place, sparked by the Christ's Ambassadors group.

EXCHANGE MINISTER IN BAPTIST PULPIT

The Rev. W. V. Buckner, pastor of the First Baptist church, will exchange pulpits Sunday with the minister in Bellflower.

At the evening service here, Westminster young people will take complete charge. The public is invited to participate in both these services.

Little Millie Irwin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Irwin, appeared in a program at Long Beach municipal auditorium Monday evening, dancing a Spanish number. A community talent revue precedes dancing every Monday evening.

I RISE TO REMARK
by John Phillips

My budget estimate, said the President in effect, calls for an expenditure in the next fiscal year (1951) of $42,400,000,000. Now wait a minute; let's add up the figures:

For liquidating contract authorizations	$4,513 million
For deficiency items between now and June 30th	1,444 million
For new contract authorizations before June 30th	148 million
For contract authorizations for the 1951 budget	3,362 million
For new projects, requiring legislation before June 30th	4,275 million
Ditto, in the new budget	1,360 million
NOW add the new budget figure, for the departments and agencies, of	35,731 million
TOTAL	$50,833,000,000

$50.8 billions, not $42.4. Whom do you think you are fooling, Harry? Certainly not my people in the 22nd District of California, who can read, and add, and think.

Bigger Deficit

You will remember when I was home last summer, I added up the current budget. My addition showed a greater deficit than the President's announcement and more recent figures have proved that my estimate is more nearly correct.

The chairman of our Appropriations Committee tried last Fall to distract your attention by listing "reductions," made by the committee, in considering the budget requests, but he did not make it clear that those reductions were decreases in the amount asked by those certain agencies but actual INCREASES over what they had had the year before. This is important, and a danger signal in representative government; the steady increase of money for bureaucracy. It was about $3 billion more than in the current budget, over last year's, and if the new budget is adopted, it will be an increase of about $9 billion over the current budget.

The income of the United States for the current year was estimated at $38 billion, and will not go over that for fiscal year 1951.

First Dinner

The first Jackson Day dinner was held January 8, 1835, to celebrate the fact that the new little Republic was, for the first time, free from any national debt. The Jackson Day dinners in 1950 (at $100 per plate) will presumably be held to celebrate the fact that, under Harry S. Truman, the national debt is now $257 billions, AND GOING UP each year, in time of peace and employment. This is a threat to the happiness and comfort and the liberties of the people, and a threat to the solvency and life of the Republic itself.

It will require an ultimate choice, on the part of the people, between increased taxes, or repudiation of the debt, or devaluation of the dollar and inflation, or of course, a return to good management and economy, which are never found in a socialist or bankrupt state.

COUNTY POLIO CASES STILL HIGH DESPITE DROP FROM 1948

The number of polio cases in Orange county last year totaled 62, a drop of 44 cases from the epidemic total of 106 of 1948 but the number is still much too high, according to County health authorities.

you get twice as much pleasure when they're both electric!

An end to worry about something important to the health and happiness of your family. That's a pleasure any time, you'll agree.

And with an electric range and water heater, you can forget all your cares about two big jobs—cooking and water heating. Your family will always have delicious, tasty meals, and you'll have less work. That's why they call it "miracle cooking!" As for hot water, your family will have that, too—all they need for every use, at any time.

For better results with less work, let accurate electric controls do your watching for you. They never forget. Electric ranges and water heaters are completely automatic—and they're both as safe and dependable as electric lights.

Takes two to make a real bargain!

Who's that cute little curly-haired blonde Kay Kelliker has her eyes on?

Marlene Sutherland is seen quite often with Roland Signer.

Patsy Reeves moved to Norwalk this side of the fence.

Those seen at Marie Schelling's house quite often are: Jess Koopman, Johnnie Veenendaal, Corte and Pete Van Dyke.

Where has Jim Holly taken Rosemary Dean lately?

Mr. and Mrs. William Boeckeler and Kathy and Davie drove to El Centro last weekend where they visited his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Fisher. They were interested in seeing the American canal, which is 100 feet across and 70 feet deep and which provides water for the valley.

Much of the preliminary paper work is being completed in the architect's office with regard to the new school building planned for Cypress, according to latest reports.

C. Earl Narramore, well-known choral music director and music teacher of Orange county, has accepted the position of choral music director at John Muir college, Pasadena. Many choral groups were organized by Narramore at Fullerton junior college during the past three years.

CYPRESS LOCALS

A nurse has been employed to care for Otho Switzer in his home on Moody street. It is expected that he will transfer from Covina hospital in the near future. His daughter from Kansas City will continue her stay here.

Mr. and Mrs. Haskell A. Kelley visited their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Holmes Durbin and family in San Diego last weey. They planned a trip to Julian, but a reported 17 inches of snowfall Thursday changed their minds. Kelley enjoyed renewing acquaintances in Ramona, where he attended high school. They returned on Saturday.

Young Mike Moss, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Moss, is enjoying a week in Phoenix, Arizona. Jimmie's mother and sister came and got Mike, and also got acquainted with Gary Thomas, newest arrival in the family.

The editor of the Enterprise and her brothers, Dale and Paul, and Mrs. Paul Kroesen are attending the annual meeting of the California Newspaper Publishers' association at the Coronado hotel in San Diego Friday and Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Dixon and their family drove to a spot near Victorville Sunday where the head of the house indulged in some rabbit hunting.

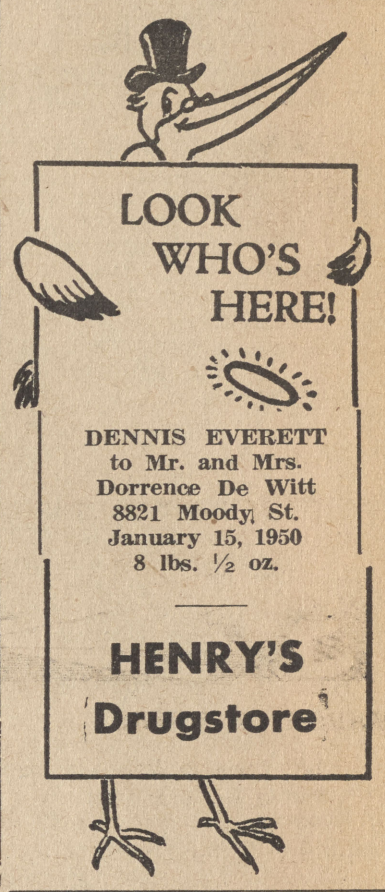
Mr. and Mrs. John Thomas and Mr. and Mrs. John Puls, winter visitors from Bay City, Michigan, drove to Santa Barbara Tuesday by way of the coast route.

It is reported that the suit of Manuel de'Alameida against Price Seibert, former school bus driver, has been referred to the insuance company for settlement.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Ehrig and family visited one evening last week with the James A. Mitchell family in La Habra. The two families met when they were all residents at the Winfield trailer court.

Mr. and Mrs. Elza Owen, La Junta, Colorado is visiting with her sister, Mrs. Virginia Quast and with Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Hazlett, 8351 Moody street. Although they live on a ranch, they are engaged in the manufacture of alabaster. One of the reasons for making the trip at this time is to show their alabaster lamps at the lamp show at the Biltmore hotel in Los Angeles.

While working on his car with chrome polish last Saturday, which is guaranteed to remove rust and spots, Bob Hoyt accidentally spilled a drop into his eye, which was a painful experience.



Mr. and Mrs. Jesse E. Smith, 5701 Vonnie Lane, motored to Lake Elsinore last Sunday. "Smitty" found a quiet spot to practice some target shooting.

License to wed has been issued to Evelyn Paulette Chancellor of 542 south Philadelphia street and Albert Kopsho, Jr., of Ball road.

MISSION GROUP VISITS SICK MEMBER'S HOME

Meeting at the home of Mrs. Bonnie Chambers on Walker avenue, members of the Women's Missionary council of the Assemblies of God church enjoy a pot luck dinner and quilting.

In the afternoon, the group went to the home of Mrs. Lillie McGee, on Orange avenue, for a special devotional hour.

Mrs. McGee has been ill for some time and has been advised by the doctor to remain quietly at home.

BIRTHDAY PARTY FETES YOUNGER VAN DYKE LAD

A birthday party was held at his home, 5252 Orange avenue, last Saturday night for Kenneth Van Dyke.

The guests were Roberta Raub, Buddy Chambers, "Po Po" Slabaugh, Rosetta Smith, Elaine Miranda, Wayde Martin, Vevah Gail Bodkins, Mary Lou Hoxsie, ed a pot luck dinner and quilting. and Narcie Ferrerriea.

Kenneth's mother, Mrs. Jake Van Dyke, prepared a marble cake for refreshments, and served ice cream and root beer, to the assembled guests and honoree.

Because he is suffering from a severe case of the flu which forced him to remain at home part of the time this week, A. C. Van Blom could not hold the grand opening for his new Royal Dutch bakery, as planned, this weekend.

That the mail carrier who drives through this territory three times a day (or more) is going to be pleased with the news that Hawaiian Gardens has asked for a crossing guard at its school. C. M. Crutchfield, the driver, mentioned to us some time ago that the bottle neck over there and the danger to the children's welfare was the worst he had ever seen. We didn't see that we could do anything about it—not wanting to cast a stone into another county. At least, they have taken a step in the right direction.

That we were reading a neighboring daily the other evening and our eye fell on one of those women's page columns which gives advice for the asking. The author was advising a group of teen agers that they had done wrong by walking out on a teenage hostess giving a party to go to the corner drugstore for milkshakes. The idea of such rude manners was so incredible that we gave it no thought—until we heard that a few couples did the same thing at Kaker Van Dyke's party Saturday night—left in a car, that is, before refreshment time. We haven't any idea who they were, so we don't know whose toes we're stepping on. But we think you might at least apologize to Mrs. Van Dyke, although we know that nice little gesture isn't in your book of rules, either.

That Cypress stories have been broadcast three times on the air by Kerwin Hoover in his "Home Town Happenings" over KFI. We've missed them, too, but let's listen Sunday mornings at 8:45, hm-m-m-m?

Narcotics, $50 Stolen From Park Drug Store

Narcotics were stolen from the Wilkinson Drug store at 6050 Grand avenue, Buena Park, late Sunday night or early Monday morning by burglars who tossed a brick through a plate glass door to gain entrance, sheriff's officers reported. A total of $50 in cash was also taken.

Investigation revealed that the burglary tied in closely with several others of a similar nature throughout the county recently.

No immediate report as to the actual value of the drugs taken was available, officers said. Actual time of the burglary was believed to have been sometime between midnight and 3:00 a.m. The loss was discovered when the store was opened at 8:30 a.m. Monday, by Mrs. Mildred Curry, employee of the drug store.

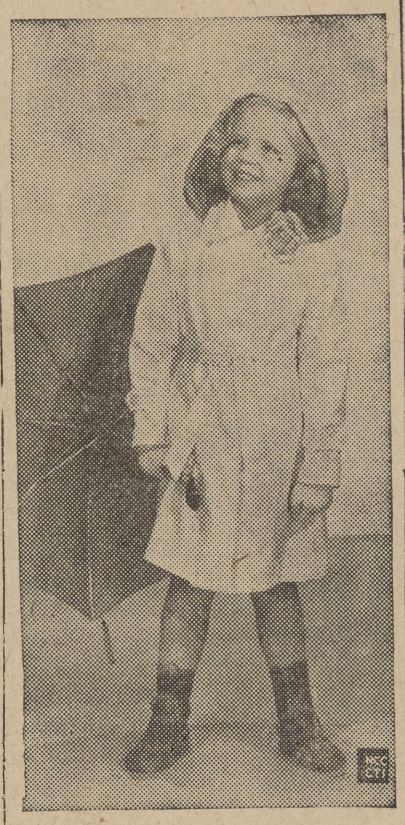
NO BLUES HERE!



Rainy days hold no blues for this little miss! She is all decked out for her trip to school in a cotton rain outfit that laughs at showers. Her pretty raincoat and hood are made of Reeves Byrd cloth, the National Cotton Council reports.

Millie Irwin Given Unique Birthday Party

Seven-year old Millie Irvin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Irvin, 8411 Gay street, proved to be a popular little hostess at a birthday party planned by her parents in her honor last Sunday.

The children were royally entertained with horseback rides. A pony and four horses were available, and overseeing the activity were Millie's brother, William Irvin, Roy Hull of Long Beach and Amos Peterson of Bellflower. Most of the youngsters were attired in western garb for the occasion.

Loathe to leave the fun of the rides, the guests were lured into the house for a game in the form of a contest, which was won by Betty Randall, who received a prize. Before the refreshments were served, Millie opened her gifts. She was delighted with the contents of the many packages.

The birthday cake was inscribed with a happy birthday greeting, in white icing and strawberry trim, and blue candles were placed on top. Hot chocolate was served, and each guest reiceived a cookie with his or her name on it, and a favor.

As an added surprise, one of Millie's favorite uncles, Wallace Phillips, of Lexington, Kentucky, arrved unexpectedly. Mrs. Irwin hadn't seen her brother in about five years. He is a machinist and contractor and may remain here.

Others present were Georgia Atton, Shirley Roberts, Patty Hull, Sandy Mustian, Mary Jo Christianson, of Long Beach; Raymond Peterson of Bellflower; William Page and his sister Annette Page, of Artesia and Sally Harper, Sharon Taylor, Freddie Sequine, Yahn Kimmel, Buddy Kimmel, Eleanor Davis, Donna Jean DeWitt, Betty Randall and Tommy Randall, of Cypress. Grown-ups were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hull, Mrs. Atton, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Roberts of Long Beach and William Irvin and his wife, of San Diego.

Assisting Mrs. Irvin with hostess duties was Verda Mae Van Buskirk.

L. A. (Dan) Patch, Treasurer-Manager of the 32nd District Agricultural association, sponsors of the Orange County fair, announced his resignation this week. Patch helped establish the fair in its first permanent location.

BOOK NOTES

Legion Forms Book Club to Teach American Ideals to Children

By George E. Hart

There's a new Book of the Month club, just organized.

It's also a new kind of Book Club, designed to teach American ideals and traditions to American school children.

It was founded and is maintained by the American Legion through its Orange county council — specifically through the Americanism committee of the council.

The Legion's Book of the Month Club, as explained by Paul K. Huff of Fullerton, chairman of the Americanization committee, represents a new approach to the problem of offsetting subversive and communist teachings in the schools.

It is the positive approach — placing American doctrines in the hands of school children — rather than the negative — trying to keep anti-American doctrines out of the schools, said Huff.

Legion Operates

The Book of the Month plan is operated by the Legion's county council through the medium of local Legion posts, which finance the cost of the program in their respective communities.

The Legion post agrees to place at least one book from an approved list each month in the local school libraries, the cost being $24 per year for one book a month. The use of these books by the school children is checked at the end of each year, in order to gauge the success of the plan.

Of the 20 Legion posts in Orange county, 13 already have aligned themselves with the Book of the Month program, and another is considering the move. Santa Ana, the largest post, has agreed to place two books per month. Agreement to place one book per month has been made by posts of Orange, Anaheim, Fullerton, Brea, La Habra, Huntington Beach, Newport Harbor, Costa Mesa, Laguna Beach, Tustin, Los Alamitos and the Orange County Women's post. Yorba Linda post has the plan under advisement.

Park Librarian

Books to be placed in school libraries are selected by a Legion committee from a list mons, assistant county librarian, and Mrs. Paul Calloway, Buena Park librarian, who is past president of the Orange County Librarians' association. Serving with Huff on this Legion committee are Bud Johnson, Anaheim; James Grieves, Fullerton; Rinaldo Spagnolitti, and Martha Chaney from Santa Ana.

Six books have been selected to date, as follows: "America's Paul Revere by Esther Forbes; "You and the Constitution of the United States," by Paul Witty; "Abraham Lincoln," by Enid Meadowcroft; "California Stepping Stones," by Robert Kingrey Buell; "Andrew Jackson," by Jeanette Nolan, and "Red Heritage" by Merritt Parmalee Allen.

Goodwin Knight Sacrificed Self For Good of Party

By Clem Whitaker, Jr.

If ever a man had a driving ambition to climb California's political ladder to its highest rung, that man was Lt. Governor Goodwin J. Knight.

The friendly "Goodie", as he has come to be known, is liked by nearly all with whom he comes in contact—and has very real capacity for public service.

Yet, while deep in the hurdy-gurdy whirl of politics, Lt. Governor Knight has sacrificed his desire to become Governor of California — and in so doing undoubtedly has greatly increased in political stature in the eyes of many of his fellow Californians.

For in his own words, Knight stepped down for the following reasons:

I have withdrawn "out of a profound conviction that no man's personal ambitions or individual political interests should cause him to disregard greater obligations and responsibilities.

"These are considerations higher than those of winning or losing an election and I have come to a determination of my course wholly on the basis of what I believe to be right.

"I would not risk by any action of mine a destruction of . . . the forces of good government, of progress, of decency in public office, of true liberalism and of good citizenship. These I have sought always to serve, and shall continue to serve."

All of his friends recognize Knight's decision was one of the hardest any man with political ambition could be called on to make.

That the decision was made, however, will do more for the political party in which Knight believes than almost any of the heavy campaigning which is certain to precede the June Primary Election.

If Knight had chosen to wage all-out battle with Governor Earl Warren for the Republican nomination for Governor — and that certainly was his right, if he so

Donna Wardlow Becomes Bride Of Gerald Cavin

With a background of white chrysanthemums and a large bouquet of mixed gladioli, Donna Lee Wardlow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claire Wardlow, 7651 Miller Road, became the bride of Gerald Cavin at a wedding held in the Congregational Church on Saturday evening at 7 o'clock. Rev. E. C. Cavin, uncle of the bridegroom, officiated, in the soft light of the candles.

Miss Carolyn Deltinger sang "I Love You Truly" and "Because" before the ceremony. She was accompanied on the organ by Mrs. A. E. Rayburn who also played a group of love songs and the wedding marches.

The bride's gown of white taffeta was fashioned with a high neck, long sleeves and a full skirt. For "something old" she wore a pair of stockings knit by her great-greatgrandmother, who also carded and spun the very fine wool of which they were made. Her fingertip veil of net fell from a heart shaped crown of pearls and orange blossoms.

The bride carried a fan of ostrich feathers on which were arranged white carnations and gardenias centered with an orchid. Her father gave her in marriage.

Miss Barbara Wardlow, her sister's maid of honor, wore a formal gown of gold taffeta, and carried a nosegay of red roses and white narcissi. The four bridesmaids, Barbara Griggs of Buena Park, June Elkins of Southgate, Dolores Adams, a cousin of the bridegroom, and Norma Cavin, his sister, both of La Habra, were identical gowns of peacock blue taffeta and carried nosegays of yellow rosebuds and white sweet peas.

The bride's little cousin, Marilyn Wardlow, the flower girl, wore peacock blue. Two other cousins, Carol Wardlow in yellow and Judy Hecel in chartreuse, lighted the candles.

Robert (Bob) Stewart was the best man. James Williams, Ned Fagan, Bob Hollis and Jess Stewart were the ushers. All were in the uniform of sailors in the U. S. Navy.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Wardlow wore black crepe. Mrs. Cavin's dress of grey crepe. Both wore corsages of gardenias.

When the 150 guests gathered to congratulate the happy pair at the reception in the social hall of the church, they were served wedding cake, punch and coffee by Mrs. Iva Elkins, Mrs. Robert Hecel, Miss Marie Maurer, Miss Maureen Maurer and Miss Frances Tucker.

When Mr. and Mrs. Cavin left for their honeymoon at Lake Arrowhead the bride's traveling suit was of navy blue wool gabardine with grey accessories. The orchid from her bouquet made her corsage.

The bride attended the Centralia school, and her husband's school was at La Habra. Both of them received their high school education at Fullerton.

They will live at San Diego where the bridegroom is stationed in the U. S. Navy.

"HAPPY" KREISSLER SPONSORS DINNER FOR VFW MEMBERS

Commander H. J. G. "Happy" Kreissler has completed arrangeents for the chicken dinner he promised all members of the VFW Post No. 9847 and the VFW auxiliary who have paid their next year's dues.

To be held Wednesday evening, January 25 at 6:30 in the utility room of the school, admission will be by a flash of the 1950 dues card only.

This novel idea was contrived by Kreissler to encourage the prompt payment of membership fees in the organizations.

Bowlers Have Bad Week in League; Triangle Best

Saying that individual scores were not for publication this week, the Cypress men's bowling teams reported bad nights in league play at the Buena Park Bowl.

Although Merchants No. 2 still holds second place in the Tuesday Handicap league, they only managed to win two and lose two to Bob's Market of Buena Park, who are second from the bottom. The Enterprise bowling reporter did manage to find out that Salty Falls rolled three games in the 170's to lead the scoring.

The No. 1 group was (please pardon the expression) "skunked" by Anaheim Truck & Transfer as they lost four straight points. They retained their hold on third place, however, trailing the No. 2 Merchant team. No scores were available at press time.

Bright Spot

Bright spot in the local bowling picture was the showing of the women's Triangle Drive-in team, which picked up two games to one from the Buena Park Cleaners. Claire Hitt was partly instrumental to the victory, when she rolled far above her average by hitting a 158 and 147. Mrs. John (Mickey) Thomas and Mrs. Dick Hathcock also bowled above their averages, hitting a 147 and 127, respectively.

TWO COUPLES GIVEN PARTY IN THEIR HONOR

Mrs. M. H. Damron entertained in honor of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Arnold and Mr. and Mrs. Dan Williams at a dinner party last Saturday evening.

Wedding anniversaries of the couples occur a short time apart, and the occasion feted both. The William's were married 38 years ago on January 9 and the Arnold's 24 years ago on January 16.

Mrs. Damron fashioned an attractive centerpiece for the table, using orchid for the predominating color. Candles of this hue were placed in crystal and candelabra, surrounded by heather which accentuated the chosen color scheme.

Present in addition to the honored guests and hostess were Mr. and Mrs. Elmer McWilliams, Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Hunt of Lakewood, and the host, Dr. M. H. Damron.

MARRIAGES LAST YEAR LOWEST SINCE 1941

The number of marriage licenses taken out last year was the lowest since 1941, it was revealed this week. A total of 2332 applications were filed as compared to 2801 in 1948.

ADOPTION OF HOOVER COMMISSION REPORT URGED BY JAYCEES

Launching what they hope will be the greatest "grass roots" campaign in history, Junior Chambers of Commerce throughout the state today began a drive to obtain 200,000 signatures on petitions calling for adoption of the nonpartisan Hoover Commission Report during the current session of Congress.

Nationally, Junior Chambers in every state are now working on simultaneous drives to convince Congressmen and Senators "that the people at home want immediate action to effect the $4,000,000,000 estimated savings through Hoover Commission recommendations," according to Dr. Philip W. Reames, of Long Beach, president of the California State Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Bowling Schedules For Next Week

The following are the bowling schedules for the leagues at the Buena Park Bowl for the week of January 23 through 27:

Tuesday Handicap

chose—then many GOP observers believe that the successful candidate would have had less strength against the eventual Democratic nominee at the November General Election.

With Warren running as the Republican nominee for Governor and Knight campaigning for reelection as Lt. Governor, few political analysts would say that both won't stand a better chance of success — by far. That would seem to hold true whether or not Warren and Knight run as a team—and whether or not they agree on each and every issue, which they most assuredly don't from the statements of the two men over the years.

By his action, however, it is exceedingly doubtful that Knight has in any way undermined his political career even if he should never have the chance to serve as Governor. But there is still a likely prospect that Goodwin J. Knight may eventually mount the top rung of the State's political ladder.

Bee's Duck Inn vs Buena Park Bowl; alleys 5 and 6, Buena Park Pharmacy vs Buena Park Bowl; alleys 7 and 8, Walt's Meats vs Wilkinson Pharmacy; alleys 9 and 10, Monarch Cleaners vs Buena Park Cleaners.

COUNTY COMMENT

By GEORGE E. HART
Orange County Press Bureau

Santa Ana—Water rights make a poor mattress. You can't sleep on them any more.

That trend in the law's view of such matters, it is believed, may be a dominant factor in causing the Metropolitan Water district to admit the proposed new water district in Orange county to membership. Or any other suitable territory in the Southland that wants in.

The Metropolitan Water district has been stuffing its mattress with water rights.

MWD is using only about 20 to 25 per cent of the water it is entitled to divert from the Colorado river, as a year-round average, although its peak summer use goes up around 40 per cent. The district has rights to 1,200,000 acre feet annually, or 1500 cubic feet per second, and that is the capacity of the Colorado aqueduct. About 75 per cent, or 900,000 acre feet, therefore, wastes off into the Gulf of Lower Caliornia.

A lot of thirsty land wants that water, and if MWD isn't going to use it, the law may take it and give it to the thirsty land, should suit be filed for it. That, at least, is the growing view of it, as discussed by Warren W. Butler of Compton, vice-chairman of the MWD board of directors and also vice-chairman of its water problems committee. That committee must pass upon mission of the new water district here. Its chairman is Dean Franklin Thomas of Caltech, one of the board of enginering consultants that mapped out Orange county's sewerage program.

Butler discussed the matter with Engineer C. Roy Browning of Tustin, representing the proposed new water district, during a recent inspection trip by MWD officials. They agreed that if water rights are to be held and protected, the best chance to do so is by using the water. The courts, observed Browning, no longer permit sleeping on water rights; not even riparian rights.

Of course, even using the water does not insure holding the right to it, they conceded, especially with the U. S. reclamation service reported to be openly out to upset all established water rights in the states and set up federal control. This, it seems, is the familiar pattern of the Robin Hood administration. Owners of water rights are beginning to feel that they may soon be ripe for Robin. No pun intended.

But the best chance of holding on to water rights is by use, and the MWD directors may decide it is best to spread out the district and get the water in use, rather than try to save it for future increase in the present district's consumption. It is doing nobody any good running down to the gulf, and it won't do MWD any good in future years if somebody in Arizona or elsewhere latches on to it.

Another advantage to MWD in spreading out, which may militate in favor of the local water district's admission, was noted by Arthur Taylor, MWD director from Beverly Hills. Taylor, who belongs to an Orange county gun club, likes the idea of spreading out, because it spreads the MWD tax base.

Taylor remarked that Beverly Hills has rights to enough water to cover the city many feet deep at all times, and that it would never all be used, no matter how much the community grows. He indicated that he favors putting the excess water on suitable new territory that would help carry the MWD tax load, besides putting the water to beneficial use.

So it looks like there will be some more Colorado river water for Orange county—at $18 per acre foot, present quotation. It comes a bit high, but we must have it.

Poet's Corner

REESE RIVER VALLEY

By Ernie Bouchard

To the valley I did come, for Mr. Visbeck on the run;
To do a little building, painting, and a little plumb, some.
I liked the place so much, by gum
I stayed longer than the autumn sun.
And here's the reasons I'll tell you, prattle,
For I'll soon be leaving, like beef cattle.

The people I liked as you could see,
Friendly neighbors and fancy free;
A friendly wave and "howdy," there,
Just like you'd see at the county fair.
The cowboys in the corral, Hell, pell, mell,
Branding irons hot, seared flesh smell.

The cattle on the range and cowboys, too,
Make impressive pictures, with mountain view.
Through the sage brush here and there,
A rattler coiled, for a scare.
There's the coyote with his cray and belly ou-o-o,
You'd think there were a million, but only very few.

A Jack rabbit here, a Jack rabbit there
That the coyote would like on his bill-o-fare.
Then there's the sage hen, that prairie chicken fat
As big as a turkey, or I'll bet me Sunday hat.
Deer a'plenty, so they say
High up in the mountains far away.

As big as a moose you'd like to see,
Say, by crackee, I'll agree.
If you like trout fish, as most men do,
There's Big Cree, San Juan, and Cottonwood, too.
There's a'plenty as canyons show
For the state stocks them as high as they go.

A duck in the river, a string on the wing
Say, I'll get one, bing, bing, bing.
I hate to see the sun go down
For it darkens the view all around.
But as I know of the night
So of the morning, to my delight.

Again I gaze at the sight serene
And I praise the Creator for us human's being.
The valley flat, song and hue
And the mountains rise to fill the view.
Austin is its town on highway fifty-two,
Where you did your shopping, when the week's work is through.

The people were friendly, and quiet I could see
So I joined them as heartily as I could be.
You did your shopping and a little high, too,
And you paid in full, or they trusted you through.
I am glad that I came, as it's a lesson, you see,
To meet such people on such a high glee.

Come home, says Roy, you are all through
The rest of the work Fred Whitehead can do.
So I am leaving Nevada, California bound
With thoughts of dear friends, just newly found.
I'll cherish the thoughts of Reese river valley,
As long as I live and have memories to rally.

NEW TRAFFIC LINK TO COAST PROPOSED

Because the new Huntington Beach State park will be a magnet which will draw thousands more to the beaches, Highway Superintendent Harold Sprenger proposed this week that a new north-south traffic artery be provided by developing Brookhurst road, just east of Buena Park, and Wright street.

Sprenger said that the new through boulevard would do much to relieve traffic on both Huntington Beach Blvd. (Grand avenue) and Harbor Blvd. Brookhurst road and Wright street would join Bushard avenue by means of an S-curve. A possible $157,000 in Federal aid money is available for the project.

BUILDING PERMITS SHOW INCREASE OVER 1948

Building permits issued in Orange county during 1949 totaled 3910 with a valuation of $18,451,380 as compared to 4295 permits filed the previous year with a lesser valuation of $17,103,565, the County building department reported.

December showed a 96 per cent gain over November of last year, and 101 per cent gain over December of 1948, the same report indicated. In December included were 20 permits issued for industrial concerns ($2,692,000 valuation), 24 single family wellings ($203,071), 25 single family dwellings with garages ($178,582), and three school building permits ($121,500 valuation). Total valuation for December was $3,565,847.
